Livestream of Activities Carried by The Hill

WASHINGTON, D.C. (July 9, 2025)– The Hill, the nation’s leading digital-first political news brand, and NewsNation, the country’s source for “News for All Americans,” today announced that they will team up to present a daylong bipartisan event featuring Speaker of the U.S. House Mike Johnson and a powerhouse lineup of one-on-one interviews and panel discussions examining the progress and promises of the first six months of President Donald Trump’s second term in office. The inaugural “Hill Nation Summit” will take place on Wednesday, July 16, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. ET in Washington, D.C.

The summit brings together some of the biggest names in American politics. In addition to Speaker Mike Johnson (R-LA), other guests include White House Senior Counselor Peter Navarro; Senator Mark Warner (D-VA); former Vice-Co-Chair of the Democratic National Committee David Hogg; Small Business Administrator Kelly Loeffler; former Speaker of the House Kevin McCarthy; Executive Director of White House Council on Digital Assets Bo Hines; Rep. Lisa McLain (R-MI); Rep. Vern Buchanan (R-FL); Rep. Ro Khana (D-CA); Rep. Kevin Hern (R-OK); Rep. John James (R-MI); Rep. Jim Jordan (R-OH); Rep. Ted Lieu (D-CA); and many more.

“For more than 30 years, The Hill has been a critical player on the Washington political scene and one of the country’s premier sources of political news,” said Bill Sammon, Senior Vice President of editorial content for The Hill and its sister cable TV news network, NewsNation. “The ‘Hill Nation Summit’ will foster a community where those in the know and those with influence will have the opportunity to meet and discuss the major events shaping the country and the future of American politics and policy.”

This exclusive gathering will cover the news of the day along with a variety of issues that are top of mind for Americans, including foreign affairs, the economy, immigration, healthcare, trade, energy, and the constantly evolving political landscape. Originating from the nation’s capital, The “Hill Nation Summit” will take place in front of a live audience made up of key thought leaders from across the political spectrum, including senior government officials, business leaders, and policy makers.

“NewsNation’s political coverage is powered by The Hill and this summit will spotlight the strength of this collaborative partnership and our robust reporting in Washington,” added Cherie Grzech, President of News & Politics at The Hill and NewsNation. “We are extremely honored to host this extraordinary event.”

The forum will showcase news anchors and correspondents from both The Hill and NewsNation, including Mr. Sammon, Washington Bureau chief Mike Viqueira, national political correspondent Julia Manchester, White House correspondent Alex Gangitano, congressional reporters Mychael Schnell and Emily Brooks, senate reporter Alex Bolton, New York Times best-selling author and senior political correspondent Amie Parnes, politics editor at The Hill and NewsNation Chris Stirewalt, NewsNation chief political anchor Leland Vittert, moderator of The Hill Blake Burman, White House correspondent Kellie Meyer, congressional reporter Joe Khalil, political contributor Chris Cillizza, and several others.

NewsNation will offer special coverage of the summit throughout the day, beginning with Morning in America at 6 a.m. ET, which will be co-hosted by Markie Martin in Chicago and Mr. Burman live from the event. At 6 p.m. ET on The Hill, Mr. Burman will recap the major highlights and the day's top speakers while anchor Chris Cuomo will be joined by special guests on CUOMO at 8 p.m. ET.

The entire summit will be livestreamed on TheHill.com and available on The Hill TV's Fast Channel.
